WPMS No. 426/2002

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

The grievance of the petitioner is that his revision has not been entertained because of the recess in the Civil Courts.

According to the petitioner, the urgency in filing the revision is that the subject matter involves eviction of the petitioner. The same could have been entertained by the District Judge, Dehradun.

The District Judge or the Additional District Judge who is in his charge may consider urgency of the petitioner and pass appropriate orders when the revision is presented before him.

The petition is disposed of accordingly.
